CERTIFICATE

We hereby confirm that

Ludovica Benedetta Battaglia

filled the role of Delegate at the 39th National Selection Conference of the Association Parlamento Europeo Giovani (European Youth Parliament – EYP Italy). The event, held in Volterra, Italy, from the 6th to the 10th of May 2016, brought together 90 competitively selected young people from fourteen Italian secondary schools and 22 officials from all over Europe.

The Association Parlamento Europeo Giovani, founded in 1994, is an independent organisation part of the European Youth Parliament/Schwarzkopf Foundation network. EYP Italy promotes the European dimension and identity in Italian secondary schools by giving the students a chance to participate in a formative experience of parliamentary discussion on topics of European and international interest. EYP Italy addresses the younger European citizens and encourages them to be conscious of and to respect other cultures and the unique characteristics of each Member State.

Through their attendance at the 39th National Selection Conference, participants have acquired extensive skills and knowledge in international teamwork, languages, intercultural communication and European politics. Participants have hereby taken an active part in European citizenship.
